

Society

All news for this department must be at The Republican office Thursday evening. All items must be signed.

SOCIETY EDITOR.

While society will not strictly observe the Lenten season, there will nevertheless be a cessation of large affairs. There will be no formal events on the calendar. The Guild festivities that have figured largely in the pleasures will of course cease for a time and will be resumed again after the six weeks' period of mock cloth and ashes. The last Guild event was the bridge tea given at the Woman's club Friday afternoon and attended by more than two hundred guests. There were fifty-three tables of bridge and additional guests at tea. The tea tables were decorated in a charming arrangement of bouquets and ferns. Those who presided were Mrs. H. M. Fennemore, Mrs. Walter Tibbet, Mrs. Anell Martin, Mrs. Dwight B. Heard, Mrs. D. C.

Millet, Mrs. E. A. Frost, Mrs. Daniel Francis, Mrs. Louis H. Chalmers, Mrs. John Bennett, Jr., and Mrs. William Harriman. On Monday afternoon an equally large and enjoyable affair was given by the Surgical Dressing committee. It was one of the most successful of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McVey entertained at dinner Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Fennemore and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Kuchler.

Mrs. A. M. Mayfield and Mrs. W. B. T. Hefell gave an artistically appointed bridge Saturday afternoon at the Woman's club. The reception hall was decorated in a scarlet and green color scheme expressed in a wealth of ornate and ferns. One of the clever features of the afternoon was the birthday cake in compliment to Mrs. Twitchell and the pretty silver symbols it contained afforded not a little amusement. Those who assisted the hostess in receiving were Miss Fay De Mund, Miss Emma Lohr, Miss Merta Work, Miss Ella Lohr, Miss Ruth St. Claire, Miss Lucy Nelson, Miss Mabel Novinger and Miss Anna Monahan. There were present Mrs. Frank Jockelyn, Mrs. George Hahn, Mrs. J. W. Dorris, Mrs. Lyman Bennett, Mrs. T. W. Pemberton, Mrs. Clay Purker, Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Mrs. Selim J. Michelson, Mrs. Joseph Cope, Mrs. J. M. Sweetnam, Mrs. John Gregg, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. N. L. Carpenter, Mrs. J. J. Sweeney, Mrs. E. C. Carlisle, Mrs. Ben Gillett, Mrs. Harland J. Gray, Mrs. G. A. Green, Mrs. A. G. Bailey, Mrs. Aubrey Smith, Mrs. H. E. St. Clair, Mrs. George Mintz, Mrs. J. M. Aitken, Mrs. Arthur Gibbons Hallett, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Mrs. George H. N. Lohr, Mrs. Howard Heilman, Mrs. D. E. Gillan, Mrs. M. E. Knox, Mrs. W. H. Mann, Mrs. Fred Hart, Mrs. J. E. Giddard, Mrs. V. A. Thompson, Mrs. Robert Proum, Mrs. A. B. Nichols, Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, Mrs. Herman Perry, Mrs. Mund, Mrs. J. M. Kellogg, Mrs. Sam Selig, Mrs. W. E. Severn, Mrs. J. P. Ivy, Mrs. Walter Hinz, Mrs. J. B. Hocker, Mrs. James Graves, Mrs. Sidney Doster, Mrs. A. W. Galpin, Mrs. Smith Chittick, Mrs. Emil Ganz, Mrs. Macey Safford, Mrs. D. D. Horning, Mrs. Helen Walker, Mrs. Clay Leonard, Mrs. C. W. Leonard, Mrs. C. W. Randall, Mrs. Eugene Backett, Mrs. John W. Foss, Mrs. J. C. Monahan, Mrs. George W. Vickers, Mrs. R. M. Tafel, Mrs. Conrad Hess, Mrs. George Stewart, Mrs. L. H. Harkness, Mrs. E. L. King, Mrs. A. H. Williams, Mrs. George Mcervan, Mrs. W. D. O'Neill, Mrs. M. D. Novinger, Mrs. F. B. Shagle, Mrs. M. W. Harris, Mrs. Alice Burns, Miss Sam Whitford, Miss Rennie Humphrey, Miss Amanda Chingren and Miss Marjorie Burns.

The Orangewood Ramona club will hold a social meeting March 15 at the home of Mrs. W. C. Glasscock.

The Woman's club gave an informal reception in honor of Mrs. R. A. Fowler at the close of its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon. The club house was decorated in the club colors, scarlet and green, the idea being conveyed in bouquets, carnations, holly and palms. More than an hundred guests were present. Preceding the reception, a program was given under the auspices of the home economics department. Mrs. R. M. Tafel, chairman, Mrs. Edith Salisbury of the Agricultural Extension Service of the state university delivered a lecture on "The Efficient Home Maker and the Government's Interest in Her," and Miss Mary Perkins, expert fireless cooker demonstrator, explained the use of the cooker. Her exhibits were roasted chicken and ice cream. The musical numbers were presented by Mrs. W. B. Barr, violinist, and Mrs. Clyde Gandy, soloist. Mrs. Barr's selections were "Cavatina" by D'Ambrasio and "Mandolinata" by Stiff, and Mrs. Gandy gave two vocal numbers, "Lullaby" (Bible) by Fritz Krahl, "O Heart of Mine" (Bible) by Ted R. Galloway.

The Woman's club of Maricopa has secured a number of clever speakers who will deliver lectures before the club during the spring season. Byron Cummings, professor of archeology of the University of Utah, former dean of the University of Utah, gave an illustrated lecture, Thursday evening at the Perry Williams residence. The club extended a large and appreciative audience greeted the professor.

Mrs. J. S. Stark gave a delightfully arranged luncheon Wednesday complimentary to Mrs. W. E. Boulton of Idaho. The table was effectively decorated in spring flowers, narcissus, verbena and nasturtium. Bridge was played in the afternoon, the highest scores being made by Mrs. Hugh Campbell and Mrs. Edward M. Doe of Flagstaff. There were present Mrs. Boulton, Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. Fred Colter, Mrs. George Coffin, Mrs. Hugh Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Weatherford, Mrs. Edward M. Doe and Miss Agnes Todd of Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Christie entertained with a family dinner of fourteen covers Sunday at their country place on the Christie road. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Creighton of New York were the guests of honor.

In honor of Mrs. Martha G. Bley of Los Angeles and Mrs. Anna Lamtugn of Florence, Mrs. George Brock gave a luncheon Wednesday at her home on East Portland street. The luncheon was a charmingly effective decoration. Besides the guests of honor there were present Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Mrs. A. L. Moore, Mrs. Joseph Shalhorne Jenkins and Miss Jane Warden.

Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson contributed to the week's pleasure with a beautifully planned luncheon Thursday at her home on North First avenue. The reception hall and dining room were decorated in a yellow color scheme with bouquets to carry out the theme. In the living room the pink color chosen was expressed in a wealth of fragrant sweet peas. Kewpie and butterfly place cards added to the artistic effect. Bridge was played in the afternoon. The pretty event was given in honor of Mrs. Hutchinson's sister, Mrs. W. E. Boulton, who is visiting here from Idaho.

The first year dance at the Country club Tuesday evening was one of the most delightful of the many affairs of which the club has been successful host this season. The novelty of the event was one of its attractions for the women charmingly carried out the leap year requirements. There were lucky number and favor dances to contribute to the amusement. Among those there were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Lewis of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jockelyn, Judge and Mrs. C. E. Almworth, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Benau Ingles, Mr. and Mrs. David Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Malley, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. George Mosley, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Lecher, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Earl Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Webb Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Redewill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bennett, Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. Robert Wallace Craig, Mrs. Homer King, Miss Lillian Westervelt, Miss Rose Bell Goldman, Miss Selma Goldberg, Miss Ruth Griffin, Miss Marlon Dorris, Miss Elizabeth Moffitt, Miss Kelly, William A. Horrell, Yewell Rice, Avery Corstien, Roy Murray, Lester Byron, Eugene Goldman, John Rinker Kibbey, Allan Westervelt, William H. McCord, Sam Wilson, Tom Trent, Charles Pope, E. H. Russell, Sidney J. Ross, Richard Hill and Morrell Brooks.

Jointly in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Cook of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Lewis, whose wedding anniversary it was, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dorris and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dorris gave a buffet supper and dance Thursday evening at the J. W. Dorris residence, Casa De Rosas. Both the Cooks and Lewises will be here from California for several weeks, and this was but one of the many smart affairs that will be given in their compliment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gatter entertained with bridge Friday evening at their North Fifth avenue residence. Those who enjoyed their delightful hospitality were Captain and Mrs. J. W. Crenshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kay, Mrs. Isaac Taft Stoddard, Mrs. H. J. Lee, Frew Morton, Colonel Harrie and Frank Harrie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kingsbury gave a delightful dinner last evening at their home in Tempe.

Mrs. Foster H. Rockwell presided over a prettily appointed luncheon Wednesday her guests being Mrs. Laurence Holden, Mrs. J. E. Rowlands, Mrs. John B. Page, Mrs. Homer King and Mrs. Joe Green.

Mrs. G. D. Von Brecht has returned from a fortnight's absence in Denver.

She will remain in Phoenix for ten days, when she plans to leave for San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. B. Gillespie gave a children's party Thursday in honor of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Gillespie. Fifteen little girls enjoyed a jolly afternoon in games.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Moore of 1724 North First street entertained with bridge Monday evening, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lamm, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Walters and Dr. and Mrs. George Broadway.

In honor of Mrs. J. G. Cherry and Miss Nell Cherry of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. William S. Humbert gave a charmingly appointed luncheon Wednesday at her home on North First avenue. Baskets of daisies were the decorative feature, and hand-thrifted cards with a daffodil motif marked places for Mrs. Cherry, Miss Cherry, Mrs. George H. Lutzgerding, Mrs. Ida Boyd, Mrs. Lyman Bennett, Mrs. Julian Holmes, Mrs. M. S. Scarborough, Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. T. W. Pemberton, Mrs. William Kennedy Humbert, Mrs. L. E. Hewlin and Mrs. Julian Holmes.

The Wednesday tennis-luncheon at the Country club attracted among others Mrs. Louis H. Chalmers, Mrs. George Olney, Mrs. Daniel Francis, Mrs. J. Thompson Graham, Mrs. Lewis Wallace, Mrs. Horace Knowles, Mrs. Fred Woodley, Mrs. C. R. Bosche, Mrs. S. D. Tuttle, Mrs. Harold Baxter, Mrs. S. E. Coats of Los Angeles, Mrs. H. J. Joseph, Mrs. Fred Woodley, Mrs. E. T. Collins, Mrs. Edward O'Malley, Mrs. John Bennett, Jr., Mrs. George Gage, Mrs. H. W. Ashury, Mrs. Francis H. Redewill, Mrs. Royal Lecher, Mrs. Ernest Lewis, Mrs. Frederick Alsdorf, Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha, Mrs. Frank Jockelyn, Mrs. Cass Redewill, Miss Marion Dorris, Miss Elizabeth Moffitt of Denver, Miss Ellen Conway and Miss Veda Butler.

Mrs. J. W. Foss gave an informal tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Harlow J. Phelps of Los Angeles. The Foss residence on North First avenue was decorated in a profusion of spring blossoms. Asked to meet the complimentary guests were Mrs. Frank Lane, Mrs. T. K. Elvey, Mrs. Emil Ganz, Mrs. Frank T. Albire, Mrs. D. L. Hornung, Mrs. Otto Plath, Mrs. John Gregg, Mrs. A. M. Mayfield, Mrs. J. C. Mulgrave, Mrs. Virginia Palmer, Mrs. C. D. Robinson, Mrs. M. D. Novinger and Miss Lucy Terrell Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harriet S. Pellow gave a delightful picnic to the Hole-in-the-Rock Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Prince, who have taken up their permanent residence in Greenbay, Wis. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Van Leuwen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bridgeman, Mrs. John Van der Veen and Miss Kathryn Van der Veen.

Mrs. E. J. Bennett gave the third of a series of bridge affairs with which she is entertaining this season Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George H. Cook of San Francisco was the guest of honor. Mrs. Sims Ely and Mrs. E. Louise Robinson were the prize winners. Mrs. Bennett's guests numbered sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bennett will arrive from the coast the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Creighton will leave today for Los Angeles. They will pass several weeks on the coast en route for their home in New York.

Mrs. John Van der Veen of High-

"The proof of the pie is in the eating."

You don't know how good ROGERS PEET clothes are till you wear them.

You'll find them good through and through—honestly made, and with the one idea—that the consumer be pleased.

Come in and see the "Aero-weight," one of the successful "Knox" hats for Spring. Light weight and suited to the warmer days coming.

McDougall and Cassou
Washington Street

land, Michigan, is the guest of Mrs. J. G. Van Leuwen of 615 East Willetta street, with whom she will pass the season.

Mrs. Harlow J. Phelps and Miss Ma-

(Continued on Page Two)

Must You Select a Present for Someone?

The Ideal Gift is one of precious stones and precious metals—Jewelry.

What else combines so much of intrinsic value that doesn't depreciate with beauty that is a constant delight? In addition there is the appealing sentiment of the birth stone.

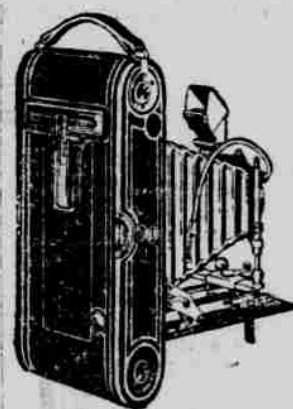

First choice, then—always—for every occasion—as a present—Jewelry.

The appropriate gift, too, that will be sure to be prized, whatever the amount you plan to spend.

We're glad to show and discuss—and guarantee.

HEGE & CO., Gift Headquarters

KODAKS at the EASTMAN AGENCY

Expert Service

Miller-Sterling Co.

Where Quality Counts
H. W. Daykin, Pres.
Our finishing is noticeable for perfection.

There is a Bewitching Charm

ABOUT THE NEW SPRING MILLINERY MODES WE HAVE ASSEMBLED FOR SPRING

MEWNESS—that is the keynote of all the beautiful millinery modes shown here now. And there is a charm—a bewitching and attractive charm about the many new styles that we have gathered for our spring displays.

THERE are many hats here made in our own shop that are direct reproductions of high-priced Parisian models. They were planned by the best designers in the millinery world and our adaptability to copy these models gives you the advantage of buying them at very moderate prices indeed.

In short, you'll find a remarkable line of spring hats here—one that is surely worthy of your inspection.

Smart Shop

Mrs. J. C. Mulgrave.

41 West Adams St.

The Quality of Work Is Just the Same

But the price for cleaning and pressing your suit is reduced to $1.00

The Paris CLEANERS.

Phone 1042

"We Do It Right"

Free Delivery

TO THE TRADE—

Another heavy general advance on wrapping paper and bags will go into effect within the next few days.

Our reserve tonnage with the mills will enable us to protect you if your order is placed at once.

Our advice is buy now and buy heavy.

THE McNEIL COMPANY
PHOENIX ARIZONA

MANUFACTURING STATIONERS AND JOBBERS